FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

NEW NONSTOP SERVICE TO AND FROM BRANSON, MISSOURI Austin and Dallas Texas Begin Service April 4, 2011

BRANSON, MISSOURI - Branson AirExpress (BAE), a public charter service based at the Branson Airport (BKG) in Branson, Missouri and operated by Corporate Flight Management (CFM), begins new nonstop service to and from Austin and Dallas, Texas today.

"We are excited to begin flights from Austin and Dallas," stated Jeff Bourk, executive director. "Branson AirExpress, operated by CFM continues to offer low fares, convenience and flexibility to great destinations."

Branson is a one-of-a-kind destination, with a little something for everyone. Famous for its Ozark Hospitality, features include 50 live performance theaters, three pristine lakes, 12 championship golf courses, an international award winning theme park, dozens of attractions and museums, an Historic Downtown district, shopping galore, a full range of dining options, a host of hotels, motels, resorts and meeting and conference facilities – all at an incredible value.

Austin, known for its musical and artistic roots has an abundance of festivals, special events, historic attractions, good eats and great shopping. For a calendar of events visit www.AustinTexas.org.

Also rich in culture, Dallas boasts an international film festival, NASCAR, shopping, four and five star hotels and restaurants and the largest urban arts district in the nation. To find information on upcoming events in Dallas visit www.visitdallas.com.

Nonstop flights will be offered Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Sunday. Travelers may take advantage of low fares by booking online at www.BransonAirExpress.com or by calling toll free 1-888-FLY-BKG1 (1-888-359-2541). 2011 marks the third year Branson AirExpress has offered these charter flights in and out of the Branson Airport.
